The competition events included a ten mile cross country ride, high and broad jumping and schooling. The Holbrook trophy is a very handsome, tall silver cup, of large size, mounted upon a black ebony pedestal. It is engraved "The Holbrook trophy for competition by officers of the 17th cavalry." It was presented by Col. Willard A. Holbrook, who has the honor of being the first officer of the recently formed regiment. The competition will be held annually and the winner's name engraved upon the trophy, which is the property of the regiment. Fifteen and twenty-two boys were in the competition and these were received by Lieut. Hardy, Maj. George Vidmer and Capt. Emil Enck. The ribbon was presented by Mrs. Holbrook. TODAY'S AMUSEMENTS

WIGWAM—"SAVING FAMILY NAME"

Extraordinary interest is attached to today's offering at the Wigwam, since advance announcement has been made that the "Family Name" is to be a play of unusual strength and one that will continue to characterize the moving pictures. The play, which is a Lois Weber production, will again bring into the starlight Mary MacLaren.

Philippe Smalley plays the role of leading man, while Jack Holt, Carl von Schiller, Harry Depp and Miss Giffard Alexander are in the supporting cast.

As is notable in the Weber productions, "Saving the Family Name" is marked by many human touches and by the naturalness of development and the life-likeness of its characterizations.

The story affords excellent opportunity for the introduction of many types that are interesting and many intensely dramatic situations. Throughout the picture-narrative there is woven an absorbing romance, with a surprise climax that gives a very ending.

The production is splendidly made, is clean and tensely fascinating and at the same time it carries a strong dramatic note. The Weber is the woman and produced both "Hypericites" and "Where Are My Children?" Like them, "Saving the Family Name" is a problem play.—Adv.

NEW KEYSTONE AT GRECIAN TODAY

"Another new Keystone at the Grecian today." What a wealth of joy is contained in these words! The new Keystone means new comedy and better comedy, for it seems as though the Keystone with such a record of new picture, and this one is no exception.

"His Busted Trust" is the title of this one, and it is just as hard to figure out what a Keystone will be like from its title as it is to try to describe one after seeing it. Everybody knows that a new picture is a new picture, and a screaming laughter and after all that's all the Keystone fans will hold a jollification meeting at the Grecian at 8:30. Summerville and associates will be present—big things are promised.—Adv.

DUSTIN FARNUM—ALHAMBRA

A screen story of wondrous beauty; a silent love story of sweetness and charm; a determined fighter who wins against odds; the latest of the great of the latest Farnum-Parmount photoplay that comes to the Alhambra today only.

With a true Irishman's "sand" and optimism Dennis O'Hara (the charming character played by Dustin Farnum) in "A Son of Erin" lands in America to seek his fortune with his pockets empty.

He is downhearted even after many bitter disappointments. Still a bit of the headliner in one of his best comedies, "His Mutual Career." It is a scream. A Vitaphone comedy, and the Kalem-Grant special reel will be shown also. The latter release is so very marvelous. Be sure and see it. Tomorrow "The Girl From Frisco" will be here.—Adv.

IRENE HOWLEY—UNIQUE

"Life's Shadows" a strong and powerful five part Metro wonderplay, in which William Nigh, the veteran director-author-star, and Irene Howley, noted for her delineation of difficult dramatic roles, are in a new feature production at the Unique today, tomorrow and Sunday.

In addition to these two popular stars there is an exceptionally strong supporting cast which includes Robert Elliott, Roy Clair, Will S. Stephens, Kathleen Aikins, William Yearnand, Frank Montgomery, David Thompson, Harry Lindson, Harry D. Blakemore, Ruth Thorpe, and Harry E. Stevens.

"Life's Shadows" is a production built for entertainment and it certainly fulfills all expectations.—Adv.

COME TO THE BIJOU TODAY.

The Bijou will present an all-star, varied bill today that will please most moviegoers. Charlie Chaplin is the headliner in one of his best comedies, "His Mutual Career." It is a scream. A Vitaphone comedy, and the Kalem-Grant special reel will be shown also. The latter release is so very marvelous. Be sure and see it. Tomorrow "The Girl From Frisco" will be here.—Adv.
